Highlights

Very few speakers offer the breadth of experience or the depth of knowledge and insight on management, leadership and leadership development as Jay Conger.

He always does custom design and research for his presentations.

Add to this his gift for engaging audiences and you have a truly unique offering: a broad foundation of knowledge, a strong customer focus, and superlative skills on the platform.

He is a prolific writer, having written or co-written more than 100 articles and 14 books, including The Practice of Leadership and Growing Your Company's Leaders. Jay has a new book out on leadership dynamics in corporate boardrooms. He is working on another book that describes how leaders can maximize their potential.

Jay Conger is the Henry Kravis Research Professor of Leadership Studies at Claremont McKenna College.

He is also Senior Research Scientist at the Center for Effective Organizations at the University of Southern California in Los Angeles and visiting Professor of Organizational Behavior at the London Business School.

Jay is an extremely effective speaker—warm, engaging, interactive. Always very well prepared on the customer's situation and goals. He is excellent with senior executives and managers.

#5 of the world's top ten management educators and the best business school professor to teach leadership to executives.
