

Such order as exists in the world rests not only on the goodwill of peoples but also on American power.

Robert Kagan

□ A major voice on the dynamics of global power. □

The dynamics of power in the new world order. Unequaled grasp of the broad geopolitical themes. Author of the forthcoming, The World America Made. Other books include: The Return of History and the End of Dreams; Dangerous Nation and Of Paradise and Power.

Available
14-2-2012

Senior Fellow of Foreign Policy, Center for United States and Europe, Brookings Institution. Columnist, Washington Post.

Ahead of the Curve

Leigh
Bureau Ltd

Phone +353.1.230.2322
Web www.LeighBureau.eu
EMail europe@LeighBureau.com

Robert Kagan

Author, The Return of History and the End of Dreams.

Highlights

Robert Kagan is an invaluable voice for audiences that seek to understand the dynamics that are shaping 21st century geopolitics and American foreign and domestic policy. He consistently offers valuable historical context and fresh, often startling, and indispensable insights into the issues that businesses, industries and nations face today. Robert founded The Working Group on Egypt, a group of policy experts aimed at ensuring Egypt's elections are free and fair.

Robert is the author of several books on international affairs. His newest book, The World America Made, paints a picture of what the world would look like if America reduced its role as a global leader.

His recent book, The Return of History and the End of Dreams, looks broadly at all the major international challenges of our time, from the rise of China and Russia, Japan and India, to the assault on democracy and the threat of radical Islamic terrorism.

His previous books include Dangerous Nation, an award-winning historical analysis of America's foreign policy traditions, and Of Paradise and Power: America and Europe in the New World Order, a national and international bestseller.

Robert is Senior Fellow of Foreign Policy, Center for United States and Europe, Brookings Institution and Transatlantic Fellow at the German Marshall Fund. He was named to serve on the Council on Foreign Relations Task Force on Turkey.

Kagan served in the U.S. State Department as a deputy for policy and was principal speechwriter to the U.S. secretary of state.

Dr. Kagan is listed as one of the world's "Top 100 Public Intellectuals" by Foreign Policy and Prospect magazines. He writes a monthly column on world affairs for the Washington Post and is a contributing editor to the Weekly Standard and The New Republic.

The Working Group on Egypt

Predicting the Egyptian uprising a year ago, Robert Kagan founded The Working Group on Egypt, with Michele Dunne as co-chair, a bipartisan initiative bringing substantial expertise on Egyptian politics and political reform, and aimed at ensuring that Egypt's elections are free and fair and open to opposition candidates. This consortium of policy experts has pressed the Obama administration to urge Mubarak to make reforms.

• Credentials

- Senior Fellow of Foreign Policy, Center for United States and Europe, Brookings Institution
- Member, Council on Foreign Relations Task Force on Turkey
- Founded, The Working Group on Egypt
- Foreign Policy's Top 100 Global Thinkers 2009
- Top 100 Public Intellectuals, Foreign Policy and Prospect magazines
- Former senior associate, Carnegie Endowment for International Peace; director of the Endowment's U.S. Leadership Project
- Member, Council on Foreign Relations
- Monthly columnist, Washington Post

Leigh
Bureau Ltd